

IAABO Officials' School
Bloomsburg University, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania
July 11 - 13, 2003

Donnie Eppley is the supervisor of officials for the Mid-Penn Conference, select Tri-Valley Schools and four independent institutions. He is responsible assigning, training and educating, observing and recommending officials for playoff assignments. Donnie is a Division I collegiate basketball official working in several conferences. In addition, he is a member of the Collegiate Basketball Officials Association (CBOA). He served over 20 years in the United States Army and is currently employed with the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials (IAABO, Inc), the world's oldest and largest organization of high school basketball officials, located in Germantown, Maryland.

PROGRAM

IAABO Officials' Schools are dedicated to improving the officiating skills of the men and women who enroll. The program is designed to benefit those who wish to embark upon a career in officiating as well as those who seek refinement of their skills. Classroom sessions will cover all aspects of basketball officiating. Those attending the school will be housed in college dormitories and all meals will be held in college dining facility. Only National Federation Rules and mechanics are taught and used. This camp is for officials with five or less years of experience and all games will be officiating using 2-person mechanics.

STAFF

The staff is made up of veteran scholastic and collegiate officials.

TUITION

The cost is $85.00 (non-IAABO member) and $45.00 (IAABO members). For application and deposit received by May 1, 2003, the fee is reduced to $80.00 (non-IAABO member) and $40.00 (IAABO members). Checks and/or Money Orders should be made payable to: Mid-Penn BOA. The registration fee is nonrefundable. Information as to what to bring and other important information will be sent 1 month prior to each session.
