

2004 IAABO Fall Seminar—Cape Cod, MA

The 2004 IAABO Fall Seminar will be held in beautiful and scenic Cape Cod, MA, September 23 through 26, 2004. Massachusetts State Board 15 is hosting the seminar, and they are ready to provide everyone with an enjoyable and rewarding weekend! Seminar headquarters will be at the Four Points Sheraton, Hyannis Resort, located at West End Circle, Hyannis, MA 02601, in Cape Cod. Reservations can be made by calling 1-800-368-7764 or 1-508-775-7775. Be sure to ask for the “IAABO Rate.”

For early arrivals, a golf outing will be held on Thursday, September 23, at the Hyannis Golf Course. Shotgun start beginning at 8:30 a.m. The cost of green fees, carts and box lunch will be $90 per golfer.

On Saturday evening, September 25, there will be a festive down home clam bake. The cost of the clam bake is $40.

Further, for those arriving early, there is plenty to see and do on the Cape. Whether soaking up the sun at the many fantastic beaches, taking in exhibits at the museum, visiting the vintage lighthouses, traveling on a high-speed catamaran en route to whale watching, sailing, fishing, or beachcombing, the Cape will keep you busy.

While the seminar is in session, family and friends may wish to take in two festivals that will be taking place the same weekend. The Bourne Scallop Festival and Fall for Orleans Festival will present 3 days of crafts, rides, sidewalk sale, entertainment and food, and a Sunday parade and car show.

Avis has once again offered IAABO meeting attendee’s special group rates. To reserve your car, call 1-800-331-1600 or online at www.avis.com. Be sure to mention your Avis Worldwide Discount (AWD) number when calling for reservations, J866990.
