

Letters to the Editor

DEAR JACKY:

Thank you to you and your staff. I love this game and after Sunday's camp concluded, I have a greater love and respect for this wonderful sport.

I knew 40-plus years ago when the stripes came onto the court it was game time. Now after Sunday's meeting, I have set my goals higher. I'm going to give those players my absolute best no matter what age group and I am very excited in looking forward to next season. I also intend to work 3-person games whenever I can.

Tuesday my son John came home from officiating two summer league games (you remember John don't you, ha ha) and made an interesting statement. "Dad, I had a great time this past weekend. Did you notice the difference in the improvement of not just me, but all the officials from Friday to Sunday. I told him I sure did! By the way, was Peter Webb's name ever changed from Naismith.

Bravo Jacky for a job extremely well done. God willing we'll see you next year. Please save a place for us at Orlando 3-person camp next year.

Personal Regards,

STEVE YORK

DEAR IAABO:

Wanted to thank you for all of your help and guidance for the Disney camp. I really had fun and learned a lot. I worked with some great officials which made things less stressful. Everyone that observed and critiqued my games was professional and gave me a ton of things to work on. Please let everyone know that I was thoroughly impressed by how the camp was run and that everyone involved did an outstanding job.

Thank You,

MARK SCARANGELLA

DEAR IAABO:

Thank you to you and your staff for a great 3-person camp at Disney. The level of play was amazing and it was a great learning experience for me. The evaluators gave me some tips to work on. I hope to be a better official this season.

Thanks again,

DAVE SONNER

DEAR IAABO:

Just another note of thanks for all that IAABO does. I had a great time learning and socializing with my fellow officials in Orlando.

IAABO is the only officials association whose members are out to help one another. Its genuineness is unparalleled.

Please thank all the evaluators for me. It's August and I'm ready to start the season.
