The primary function of the annual meeting is for the registered delegates to elect officers and to elect four executive committee members to 3-year terms. The elections will be held on Sunday morning, April 18. Delegates must be in attendance at the election meeting to cast their votes. The business of IAABO will be conducted by its committees and will meet on Thursday through Saturday.

All delegates must register with the IAABO office, which is assisting the Past Presidents in coordinating all convention activities. Delegation packets have been mailed to each Board Secretary and should be returned to the IAABO Office, faxed to 301-601-8018, or transmitted electronically on the IAABO website.

The first social event of the convention will be held on Thursday, April 15 at the Disney Lake Buena Vista golf course. This is a scramble event consisting of four-person teams. On Friday evening, April 16, an exciting evening at Dolly Parton's Dixie Stampede Dinner Theatre is scheduled.

On Saturday, April 17, the IAABO Life Membership ceremony and luncheon will be held. Life Membership is IAABO's highest and most prestigious honor. When the 2004 honorees are called to the dais, they will receive the distinguished and well recognized Life Membership ring.

Sunday morning IAABO will hold its Spouse and Guest Breakfast for your significant other. The breakfast will begin at 9 a.m. There is no charge for those who register before April 5.

Make early arrangements by calling the Grosvenor Resort Hotel. You can register for all events by downloading forms off the IAABO website at www.iaabo.org. See you in Orlando!
