

IAABO in Orlando

Over 200 IAABO members and their guests came together at the Grosvenor Resort Hotel in Lake Buena Vista for the IAABO Spring Seminar, April 15–18, 2004. The seminar, sponsored by the Past Presidents and Executive Committee, got off in a “shotgun” start on Thursday, with over 60 golfers participating in the annual golf outing. It was a beautiful day on the course. With the use of state-of-the-art navigation systems on all carts, we were fortunate not to lose anyone. Committee meetings were held throughout the weekend. The Fifth Annual Life Membership Luncheon was again an outstanding success. The final meeting of the weekend, the annual business and election meeting, was held on Sunday when Jack Doyle was elected IAABO’s 66th President. Business and pleasure was shared by all.

President Jack Doyle congratulated by Exec. Com. member Felix Addeo, Com.

Seven most worthy and dedicated members were honored with IAABO Life Membership (L-R): Roger MacTavish, Bd. 39 NY; Hank Ryan, Bd. 28 MA; John Donnelly, Bd. 30 MA; Joe Mitchell, Bd. 134 MD; Bob Miske, Bd. 53 NY; John McDonnell, Bd. 6 CT; and Past President Ron Brown, Bd. 4 CO.

“Honored” Past President Ted Butcher Bd. 26 MA

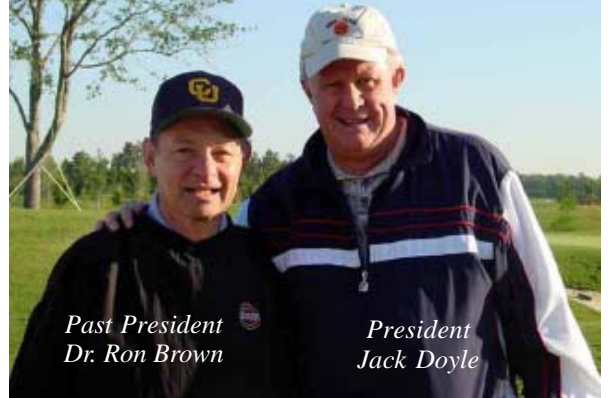

Past President Bill Varno

Full House at committee meetings.

Time out for the Hospitality Suite

“Out with the Old, in with the New”

Past President Dr. Ron Brown

President Jack Doyle